

Pernilla Jonsson is working as an Assistant Director, International trade at a trade association called NPES. At NPES she directs the NPES international offices and representatives, driving a dynamic program of market information and trade promotion services to help members sell their products worldwide.

Prior to joining NPES, Pernilla worked for the Swedish American Chambers of Commerce Inc (SACC-USA) where she led trade activities between Sweden and the U.S.

Pernilla has a degree in Business Management from Colorado State University.