

Maja Persson joined SACC-DC in August 2007. Before that, Maja worked with media outreach for the Robert F. Kennedy Center for Human Rights in Washington; and as a consultant for the Embassy of Sweden in connection with their Water and Environment program in House of Sweden. Prior to that spent almost three years in Nicaragua where she worked as a project manager at the European-Latin American Chamber of Commerce. Before her time in Nicaragua Maja worked as an Information Officer for two years at International IDEA (Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance) in Stockholm. Maja moved to Washington, DC in 2003 and lives here with her husband and two daughters.
